

The Wendell Oliver Pruitt Homes and William Igoe Apartments, St. Louis. Completed in 1956, Pruitt-Igoe was one of the largest public housing projects ever built, with 33 buildings rising 11-stories and home to over 10,000 people. The housing authority demolished the project in stages from 1972-76, and today the grounds remain vacant.

